

The Management of Rick's Doors are committed to meet the FSC® core labour requirements. These include:

- The prohibition on the use of child labour, except in identified circumstances:
 - We know and understand the statutory legal minimum ages of employing children in Queensland, and the school leaving age and any other conditions that apply.
 - Employees under 18 only conduct hazardous or heavy work within the context of an approved apprenticeship or traineeship; and
 - We always ensure that all Employees are paid according to the relevant modern award/EBA and that such employment is not harmful to their health or development.
- The prohibition on all forms of forced labour:
 - We do not restrict workers, withhold funds for payment of obligations (unless required by law – e.g. Child Support payments), withhold passports or identification documents from them.
 - All employees are recruited into roles and paid minimum rates as prescribed by the relevant modern award/EBA.
 - All employees are verified to have the right to live and work in Australia under the relevant visa, residency, or citizenship requirements.
- Ensuring our workplace is free from all forms of discrimination:
 - We strive to have a diverse workforce in terms of age, ethnicity, gender, and other characteristics.
 - When recruiting for roles, we select the best candidate for the role without discrimination.
 - We ensure all employees are presented with equal opportunity to apply for other internal roles, promotion, salary increase and advancement.
 - We maintain a strict anti-discrimination policy in compliance with Australian Law.
- Allowing our Employees the right to Freedom of Association and Collective Bargaining.
 - We comply with the provisions of the Fair Work Act 2009 in relation to Freedom of Association and Collective Bargaining and the other general protections afforded in Australia.
 - Employees have the right to join or refuse to join a worker organization, without sanction or undue influence.
 - Employees have the right to be represented by a registered industrial organization in accordance with the Ac.
 - Employees have the right to bargain collectively and participate in industrial activity in accordance with the Act.

Rick's Doors has implemented the highest core labour requirements - whether it be Australian Law or the FSC Standard into our operation. To ensure compliance, we have completed a self-assessment and keep records to demonstrate compliance.

Created:2024-Feb-26; Updated: 2024-Feb-27; Version: 1.1